

TOURIST ATTRACTIONS IN THE ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND AREA

Annapolis Boat Shows Annapolis Boat Shows

America's Sailing Capital welcomes both sailors and power boaters to the nation's oldest and largest in-water boat shows back-to-back over two weekends in October.

Annapolis City Marina

Diesel & High Octane Gas. Pump-in/Out Facility. Deepwater slips with electric, water, phone, and cable TV available. Air-conditioned bathhouse and laundry, dinghy rack, picnic area with propane gas grill and picnic table. Open year-round

Annapolis Gallery Association - Art Walk

Twenty galleries in downtown Annapolis present art in a wide variety of subject matters and styles. Artists demonstrate their skills while you watch over their shoulder.

Annapolis Symphony Orchestra

Offering music lovers the finest classical repertoire played by professional players. Classic Pops and Family Series concerts. Free Labor Day weekend concerts in the Parks.

Annapolis Tours

Spend the day in Annapolis! Let our experienced tour coordinators plan the complete Annapolis experience. From historic walking tours, scenic boat cruises, to private events-experience all that we have to offer.

Annapolis Walkabout

Architectural historian offers walking tours of Historic District and US Naval Academy. Depart from Visitors Center at 11:30am. Saturdays and Sundays, April-October. Tours by reservation year round.

Anne Arundel County Fair

An all-volunteer, non-profit organization dedicated to showcasing our community's best at our annual fair event. We also sponsor other family fundraising events. Fairground rentals also available.

ARTFX

Celebrating the region's best artists. Have fun exploring our handcrafted pottery, jewelry, glass, candles, sculpture, woodturning, photography and paintings. Now featuring the area's only gem cutting and custom jewelry studio.

Arundel Mills Mall

A shopping destination with over 225 unique stores - this mega-mall features outlet, discount, and specialty retailers and themed restaurants like Medieval Times Dinner & Tournament and an Egyptian-themed 24-screen movie theater.

Kunta Kinte - Alex Haley Memorial

One million people annually visit the site at Annapolis City Dock where Kunta Kinte, an enslaved African, arrived in 1767. His story, told by Alex Haley in Roots, symbolizes the importance of cultural heritage and family.

Kunta Kinte Celebrations, Inc.

African-American ethnic festival featuring exciting performances for two days in summer. Unusual displays of arts, crafts and exhibits. Festivities include a children's tent and delicious ethnic cuisine.

Maryland Renaissance Festivals, Inc.

A twenty-two acre English village with more than 200 performers, ten stages, 5,000 seat jousting arena, 148 craft shops and 48 food/beverage facilities. Maryland's premier outdoor event. Weekends, August through October.

Maryland Seafood Festival

Taste Chesapeake Bay seafood delicacies, enjoy continuous entertainment all weekend. Beach activities for kids of all ages. Annual crab soup cook-off on Saturday. Located at Sandy Point State Park. Admission. Held the weekend after Labor Day.

U.S. Naval Academy Athletic Assoc.

Plan a tailgater at Navy Football and enjoy the pageantry of the Brigade of Midshipmen march-on, fly-bys, parachuting Navy SEALs. Call the ticket office for a complete schedule of events. GO NAVY!

U.S. Naval Academy/ Armel-Leftwich Visitor Center

The visitor center (inside Gate 1) features guided walking tours of the Academy, film, "Leaders of Character: Serving the Nation," Freedom 7 space capsule, sample Midshipman room, John Paul Jones exhibit, and Gift Shop.